§ 141-1. Intent.

It is the intent of the Board of Trustees of the Village of Camden to relieve the Town of Camden Justice Court of the administrative problems resulting from the collection of fines for parking violation offenses committed within the Village of Camden and to permit said Justice Court to devote its time to traffic offenses other than parking violations and to other matters.

§ 141-2. Authorization to establish Bureau.

The Justice Court of the Town of Camden is hereby authorized to establish a Parking Violations Bureau and to designate the Village Treasurer as the head of such Bureau, which Village Treasurer is authorized to appoint one or more other Village officials to assist in the administration of the duties hereunder and herein provided.

§ 141-3. Powers and duties.

- A. The Bureau so established shall be authorized to dispose of parking violations only and to collect the fines designated by the Court as penalties for parking violations over which the Bureau has jurisdiction.
- B. Notwithstanding any provision herein, such Bureau shall not be authorized to deprive a person from his/her right to counsel or from his/her exercising his/her right to appear in Town of Camden Justice Court.

§ 141-4. Persons not permitted to appear before Bureau.

Notwithstanding any other provision herein, any person who shall have been, within the preceding 12 months, guilty of more than six parking violations shall not be permitted to appear in answer to a subsequent violation at the Parking Violations Bureau but must appear in the Town Justice Court at a time specified by the Bureau.

§ 141-5. Interpretation.

Any ambiguity with respect to any provision herein or interpretation hereof shall be governed by Article 14-B of the General Municipal Law, as amended.
